

Who We Are

At Grochau Cellars, we come to wine as appreciators first, explorers second and creators third. We always try to remember that balance. Drawing inspiration from the classic nuanced wines of France and Spain, we craft the kind of wines we hope to drink at the end of the day: pure, honest and delicious.

Established in 2002, Grochau Cellars is anchored to our Oregon homeland, and we approach each vintage with the same goals: create complex, genuine wines, true to their origins and to the distinct flavors of Oregon and the Northwest.

What We Stand For

We make wine in the city of Portland, which is where we live. Our location makes it easy for you to visit us, to learn about wine and participate in the wine-making process.

We're committed to dispelling the notion that wine is complicated. It's just wine!

How We're Different

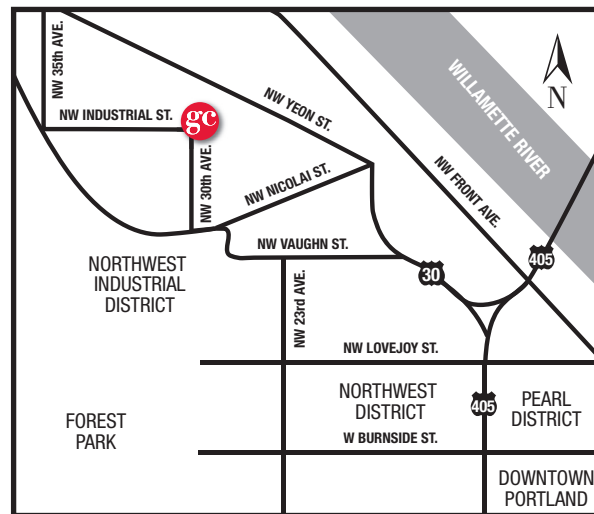

We're an urban winery, located just a few minutes from downtown Portland in the northwest industrial area. We offer easy access to great local wine, wine appreciation classes and opportunities for winemaking interaction. Experience winemaking without the drive.
